

101. PHILOSOPHY OF MISSION/VISION - Page 2 of 2

B. Curriculum and Instruction integrates technology to enhance teaching and learning.

C. Curriculum and Instruction prepares and inspires students for future endeavors.

4. Students

A. Students take ownership of their learning through active participation.

B. Students believe in themselves, put forth their best effort, and take pride in their abilities and achievements.

5. Community Partnerships

A. Parents, as the first and most influential teachers, are committed to their children's education.

B. The District collaborates with local businesses and outside agencies to provide support and opportunities for students.

C. All members of the school and community share the responsibility for student success through continued involvement and commitment to the educational process.

6. Personnel

A. Staff recognizes a shared responsibility for enforcing and modeling school rules and increasing student achievement.

B. Professional Learning Communities collaborate to make data-based decisions and implement best practices to enhance student success.

C. Staff effectively communicates with parents and community to support student success.

D. Staff takes ownership for their professional growth.